CARES CHORUS (CB #23)

I cast all my cares upon You. I lay all of my burdens down at Your feet. And any time that I don't know what to do, I will cast all my cares upon You.

"But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear;" (I Peter 3:15)

We know Martha by her diligent, eager serving; we also know Mary – by her posture at the feet of Jesus. We find her sitting at Christ's feet, eagerly listening to His words. This is the place of a disciple, where one learns the lessons the Master has to teach, where one's soul receives the blessings He has to give.

Every believer should learn the lesson that there can be no Christian character for him, no sweet influence pouring from his life, no blessed ministry giving comfort and joy to others – unless he first sits at Christ's feet as a learner. This is a vital principle in Christian life. We can give out to others only what God has first given to us.
–J.R. Miller (1891)
