*“And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works”
(Hebrews 10:24)*

“The Resurrection is why we don’t give up. According to 1 Corinthians 15—Christ arose as the first-fruits of all who fall asleep in Him. He destroyed our last enemy and provided the power, proof, and pattern for our own resurrection. Because of Jesus, the trumpet will sound and we’ll be raised incorruptible. Our Lord gives us the victory, which is why we remain immovable and abounding in His will and work.

We don’t give up when Satan attacks, when friends turn against us, when family upsets us, or when the work seems futile.

On Good Friday the Savior perished and the devil gloated. But everything was different three days later—so don’t give up. Look up. Cheer up. Your life and labor in the Lord is not in vain.”

—David Jeremiah (Turning Point)
